

Traditional favorites to include the hymns “We Gather Together,” “Come, Ye Thankful People, Come,” and “All People that on Earth Do Dwell.” Other music to include brass quintet and organ pieces, as well as Cochran’s setting of “Simple Gifts,” and Anglea’s “Benediction.”

Dana Oakes and Dana Russian, trumpets, Robert Marlatt, horn, Hans Bohn, trombone and Ken Amis, tuba, join us for a second year to usher in Thanksgiving. Members of the Boston Pops Esplanade Orchestra, Boston Ballet Orchestra and appearing with the Boston Symphony, these members have performed in concert throughout the United States, on radio and television, including recording the theme music for “The Advocates” for PBS.

Beacon Brass Quintet has been featured at prestigious special events including a Carnegie Hall recital, the opening ceremonies of the John F. Kennedy Library and the Centennial Dinner for members of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. They have been featured in informal lecture/recitals with Boston Pops conductor Keith Lockhart.